(2) The said list shall contain the names in alphabetical order with reference to the names of candidates having surnames and the names proper of other candidates, in the language and manner in which the list of voters is prepared and the addresses of the contesting candidates as given in the nomination papers.

(3) Where a poll becomes necessary, the Returning Officer shall consider the choice of symbols expressed by the contesting candidates in their nomination papers and shall, —

(a) allot a different symbol to each contesting candidate in conformity as far as practicable, with his choice ;

(b) if more than one contesting candidate have indicated their preference for the same symbol, then symbols shall be allotted on the basis of 'first come first serve' and such allotment shall be final; and

(c) if more than 30% of candidates of total contesting seats come together and form the group and demand a common symbol by common written application signed by all the concerned candidates, then the Returning Officer may allot them a common symbol.

(4) Every candidate shall forthwith be informed of the symbol allotted to him and be supplied with a specimen provided by the SCEA thereof by the Returning Officer.

76-N. The poll.—(1) If for any constituency for which election is to be held, the number of candidates whose nomination papers have been declared valid, does not exceed the number of candidates to be elected for that constituency, the returning officer shall at the general meeting convened for the purpose of the election, declare them to have been duly elected to the Managing Committee.

(2) If the number of candidate whose nominations are valid exceeds the number to be elected for any constituency, the returning officer shall arrange for conducting a poll on the date and time fixed for the purpose.

(3) The Returning Officer may appoint as many polling officers as may be necessary for conducting the poll.

(4) Canvassing of votes by any person at the place where elections are to be conducted shall be prohibited.

(5) Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the Returning Officer shall show the empty ballot box to such persons as may be present at the time and shall then lock it up and affix his seal in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking the seal. The candidate may also affix his own seal, if he so desires.

(6) Every member who desires to exercise his right of vote shall be supplied with a ballot paper containing the names of contesting candidates arranged in alphabetical order either printed, typewritten or copied, according to convenience. The ballot paper shall also bear the seal of the society and also the initials of the returning officer on reverse of the ballot paper and further contain a column, for the voter to inscribe mark 'X' against the name or names of the persons to whom he wants to vote.

(7) The Member on receiving the ballot paper shall forthwith,—

(i) proceed to one of the polling compartments ;

(ii) there after make a mark on the ballot paper with the instrument supplied for the purpose on or near the symbols of the candidate to whom he intends to vote and every voter shall be entitled to give as many votes as there are for the seats to be filled ;

(iii) fold the ballot paper, so as to conceal his vote ;

(iv) insert the folded ballot paper into ballot box ;

(v) quit the polling station; and

(vi) no voter shall be allowed to enter a polling compartment when another voter is inside it.

(8) The identity of any member whose name is entered in the final voters list and is eligible to vote, if challenged by any candidate, then the Returning Officer shall make a summary inquiry and decide the question of identity challenged.

(9) All voters present at the polling premises before it is closed shall be issued the ballot paper and allowed to vote.

(10) If, at any stage of the polling, the proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or affray or if at such election it is not possible to conduct poll for any sufficient cause, the Returning Officer shall have power to postpone the polling after recording his reasons for such action.

(11) Where the poll is stopped under clause (10) or where counting of votes is rendered impossible on account of destruction or loss of ballot boxes or any other sufficient reason, the Returning Officer shall postpone the polling after recording the reasons for such action in the minutes book of the society and notice in this regard shall be displayed on the notice board of society and same shall be communicated to the Registrar.—

76-0. Counting of votes and declaration of result.— (1) The Returning Officer shall start counting of votes immediately after polling is completed as per declared election programme. The Returning Officer shall count number of valid votes received by each candidate, number of invalid votes and declare the names of successful candidates.

(2) When an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidate either for the reserved or the unreserved seats, the addition of one vote will entitle any of the candidate to be declared elected, the determination of the person or persons to whom such an additional vote shall be deemed to have been given, shall be made by lots to be drawn, in the presence of the Returning Officer and the candidates who may desire to be present, in such manner as the Returning Officer may determine.

(3) The Returning Officer shall then declare the candidate to whom the highest number of valid vote have been given as having been elected and certify the result of election in FORM E-17 and shall submit it to the Registrar within two days from the declaration of result and published it on the notice board of society. The Registrar there after shall constitute the committee within 15 days from the receipt of FORM E-17 from the returning officer.

76-P. Custody of papers relating to elections.—All the records pertaining to the election shall be carefully preserved in a box duly locked and sealed by the Returning Officer and handit over to the Secretary or an authorized officer of the society for a period of six months and destroy thereafter. However, if the result of the election is disputed, the records pertaining to election shall be preserved until the final decision of the dispute.

76-Q. The Returning Officer shall call meeting of elected members of committee for electing office bearers on a fixed date and its notice shall be given to every member of committee at least seven days before the date fixed therefor in writing with an acknowledgment. Such a notice shall contain,—

(i) the number of Officers to be elected ; and

(ii) date, place and time of the meeting. The business transacted in this meeting shall be recorded in the minute's book of the society and the same shall be communicated to the Registrar.

76-R. (1) In addition to the above provisions, the provisions of rules 1,2,4,14,70,72,78 to 86, of these rules shall also apply in respect of election to the committee of Type “ E ” Societies.

(2) The provisions of rules 3, 5 to 13, 15 to 69, 71 and 73 to 77 of these rules shall not apply in respect of election to the committee Type " E " Societies.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,
